Caipirinha

Beach Culture

The caipirinha, man. This indispensable icon of Brazilian beach culture is known to start with fresh lime, muddle and mash with more lime juice, sugar, ice, the magic ingredient, cachaça [...], and you've got yourself one of the world's truly great cocktails.

Espresso Martini ⁸

Sophisticated

It is thought that this cocktail was created by Dick Bradsell in 1983 at the Brasserie Soho/London when a woman asked for something that would „wake me up, and then f me up“.

Gin Fizz

Sophisticated

Henry C. Ramos invented the Ramos gin fizz in 1888 at his bar, the Imperial Cabinet Saloon on Gravier Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. It was originally called a "New Orleans fizz", and is one of the city's most famous cocktails.

London Mule

Very British

Also known as a British mule, gin-gin mule or Foghorn cocktail, the London mule is named because it uses a London dry gin instead of vodka, which is traditional in the standard Moscow mule. To qualify as a London dry gin, the spirit must be infused with botanicals with juniper serving as the primary flavor.

Mojito

Classic

A Cuban classic; a combination of sweetness, refreshing citrus, and mint flavours that complement the potent kick of rum.

9.7

Whiskey Sour

Timeless

On long sea journeys, water was not always dependable, so to combat that, spirits were often used. Scurvy, too, was another danger on these journeys, so lemons and limes were consumed to help prevent the disease.
