CAIPIRINHA

Beach Culture

The caipirinha, man. This indispensable icon of Brazilian beach culture is known to start with fresh lime, muddle and mash with more lime juice, sugar, ice, the magic ingredient, cachaça [...], and you've got yourself one of the world's truly great cocktails.

CUBA LIBRE

Historical

As the story goes, in the year 1900, a captain in the U.S. Army stationed in Havana during the Spanish-American War poured Coca-Cola and a squeeze of lime into this and toasted his Cuban comrades by calling out in the bar, "Por Cuba Libre!"

GIN FIZZ

Sophisticated

Henry C. Ramos invented the Ramos gin fizz in 1888 at his bar, the Imperial Cabinet Saloon on Gravier Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. It was originally called a "New Orleans fizz", and is one of the city's most famous cocktails.

MOJITO

Classic

A Cuban classic; a combination of sweetness, refreshing citrus, and mint flavours that complement the potent kick of rum.

WHISKEY SOUR

Timeless

On long sea journeys, water was not always dependable, so to combat that, spirits were often used. Scurvy, too, was another danger on these journeys, so lemons and limes were consumed to help prevent the disease.
